Low Labor 12-Tier Layer Chicken Cage System Efficient Space Usage

Description & Features:

Designed by Farmrob's professional and experienced technical team, this product combines innovative engineering with precision craftsmanship. The development process follows an efficient, streamlined workflow to ensure optimal performance and reliability. Built with a solid, durable structure and can withstand multiple chickens.

Farmrob's equipment has exceptional stability and long-lasting functionality, which is ideal for demanding applications.

Maximize space utilization: Reasonable high-density multi-layer design with more than 150,000 chickens. Provide an area/bird(cm<sup>2</sup>) of 434 cm<sup>2</sup> to guarantee them live and move comfortably

Low labor: Mechanized operation reduces manual work with automatic system. Just 2 or 3 staffs can manage whole coop. Combined with the Internet of Things technology to achieve digital farming management.

Durability and stability: Zn-Mg-Al alloy with high strength and corrosion resistance performance, high-end selected quality materials with ageing resistance and exquisite workmanship. The continuously updated and optimized design greatly reduces the failure rate.

Comfortable environment: Improved hygiene, and bird health with automatic and proper ventilation and waste management. Reduced disease transmission rate.

All of the above improve breeding and production efficiency. Ideal for green cultivation and commercial layer farms. Farmrob's poultry battery cage are popular in closed house for large scaled poultry farm with low cost but high returns.
