Product Description

Modern H type 5-tier Layer Chicken Cage Type for Commercial Farm

Ideal for green cultivation and commercial layer farms. Farmrob's poultry battery cage are popular in closed house for large scaled poultry farm with low cost but high returns.

Features

Reliable equipment: Professional design based on over 10 years of experience ensure zero egg-breaking rate and the healthy growth of chickens. Carefully selected materials, for example, Q235 Al-Zn alloy wire, Al-Zn-Mg alloy bracket, Flicker-free high-end LED bulb, Non-deformable manure belt, are the prerequisite for the normal operation of the equipment.

Cost saved: Achieve intensive rearing but save land. Fully automatic systems, including feeding, drinking, manure removal, egg collection and easy operation greatly reduce labor cost.

Mature environmental control system: Keep appropriate temperature, humidity, enough oxygen, and good air quality and create safe, healthy environment for chickens. Improve the feeding conversion rate and egg production rate.

Big data platform: Collect real-time breeding environment, chicken flock behavior and production data to facilitate precise control. Reduce risks and improve the efficiency of handling emergency events.
