Product Description

Timely Management Layer Chicken Cage System in Pakistan

Farmrob has developed mature solutions that address the demands of modern poultry farming. As one of China's top poultry equipment manufacturers, Farmrob has earned the trust of clients worldwide with its reliable products and proven farming systems. With six specialized workshops and a monthly production capacity of 50,000 units, we guarantee consistent and timely delivery for our customers worldwide. Whether you aim to optimize operations or boost productivity, Farmrob provides the advanced equipment and expertise to help you succeed.

Key Features

1. Available high-quality 3-12 tier chicken cages specifically designed for commercial layer poultry farming, providing comfortable automatic systems and living environment to maximize egg production.
2. Anti-corrosion material: Q235 Al-Zn alloy wire (10% Al, 3% Zn). Hot-dip galvanized square tube supports for enhanced durability. Anti-aging manure and egg belt resist degradation from moisture and waste exposure.
3. Ideal for fully automatic, energy-saving operations in limited land areas. Farm owners can achieve fine management and maximum profits.
4. Continuous air circulation ensures effective heat dissipation and sufficient fresh air. Well-regulated wind speed helps maintain a healthy coop environment.
5. Our equipment ensures timely manure removal and water line flushing, maintaining a clean and hygienic environment for your poultry at all times.

Fully Automatic Systems

- Automatic feeding system
- Automatic drinking system
- Automatic egg collection system
- Automatic manure removal system
- Automatic cooling and ventilation system
- Automatic control system
