Product Description

Chicken-Oriented Cage Free System for South America Farms

Farmrob designs and manufactures modern, advanced poultry equipment for both domestic and international markets. Our products are ISO 9001 and CE certified. The H-type poultry raising equipment is designed for layers, pullets, breeders, and broilers, helping achieve fine management and maximize returns. Committed to sustainable farming, we offer three core welfare breeding equipment series:

Large-Cage Enriched Colony System

Single-tier Aviary System

Multi-tier Aviary System

Single-tier Aviary System Features

Open structure enables natural chicken behaviors like turning and wing-flapping

High-friction belt and stable egg lift minimize breakage during transport

Elastic Al-Zn alloy bottom net protects birds' feet with smooth surface

Curtains and soft nesting pads reduce floor eggs and stress while preventing broodiness

Perches and activity platforms support natural behaviors

Ample feed pans ensure uniform feeding distribution

Retains management advantages for feed distribution, water supply, egg collection, and disease control
