Product Description

Safe Egg Collection Layer Chicken Cage System for Commercial Farms

Farmrob has earned global trust by delivering exceptionally reliable products and solutions. Our fully automatic layer equipment is widely recognized for innovation and efficiency, setting new standards for productivity, animal development, and sustainable operations worldwide.

We operate six specialized workshops across 120,000 square meters, with a monthly production capacity of 50,000 sets to ensure timely and reliable supply for our customers.

Key System Features

- Sliding cage door design for effortless operation with sufficient feeding positions to prevent overcrowding
- Al-Zn wire mesh prevents foot entrapment and allows smooth manure passage while minimizing cracked eggs
- Excellent ventilation and adjustable lighting with fully automatic manure removal for optimal hygiene
- Stable, low-failure egg lift system with egg leakage and defective egg filtration
- High-end PP egg belt with low extension rate and long lifespan
- Automated egg delivery outside poultry house reduces labor costs and worker contact with birds
- Suitable for all types of breeding chicken houses
