Product Description

Effective Space Utilization Poultry Battery Cage System

Our Pullet Cage system features a mature, eco-friendly design that provides a safe, clean, and healthy habitat specifically engineered for baby chickens. By integrating durable materials and energy-efficient systems, this solution promotes robust early development while significantly reducing environmental impact.

The design prioritizes bird well-being by minimizing stress and allowing comfortable movement, aligning with modern agricultural standards that emphasize sustainable practices alongside optimal poultry development.

Available in configurations from 3 to 8 tiers with capacities exceeding 30,000 birds, our Pullet Cage system offers scalable solutions for operations of any size. The modular design allows for easy expansion as your poultry operation grows, protecting your long-term investment while maximizing vertical space utilization.

Key Benefits

- Improved environmental hygiene and sanitation
- Enhanced chicken health and welfare
- Increased farm management efficiency
- Environmental protection and optimal resource utilization
- Reduced chick stress levels
- Improved chick survival rate and uniformity
- Optimized feeding and drinking management
- Facilitated observation and early disease detection
